Company Name ("Carrier"): The Pioneer Telephone Association, Inc. d/b/a Pioneer Communications

STATEMENT

Carrier has established operating procedures that ensure compliance with the Federal Communication Commission ("Commission") regulations regarding the protection of customer proprietary network information ("CPNI").

- Carrier has adopted a manual and keeps it updated with FCC CPNI rule revisions, and has designated a CPNI compliance officer to oversee CPNI training and implementation.
- Carrier continually educates and trains its employees regarding the appropriate use of CPNI. Carrier provides annual training for all employees and individual training for new employees. Employees are provided with a continually updated Code of Ethics that includes the Commission's regulations regarding the protection of CPNI. Carrier has established disciplinary procedures should an employee violate the CPNI procedures established by Carrier.
- Carrier has implemented a system whereby the status of a customer's CPNI approval can be determined prior to the use of CPNI.
- Carrier maintains a record of its and its affiliates' sales and marketing campaigns that use its customers' CPNI. Carrier also maintains a record of any and all instances where CPNI was disclosed or provided to third parties, or where third parties were allowed access to CPNI. The record includes a description of each campaign, the specific CPNI that was used in the campaign, and what products and services were offered as a part of the campaign.
- Carrier has established a supervisory review process regarding compliance with the CPNI rules with respect to outbound marketing situations and maintains records of carrier compliance for a minimum period of one year. Specifically, Carrier's sales personnel obtain supervisory approval of any proposed outbound marketing request for customer approval regarding its CPNI, and a process ensures that opt-out elections are recorded and followed.
- Carrier has implemented procedures to properly authenticate customers prior to disclosing CPNI over the telephone, at Carrier's retail locations, electronically or otherwise. In connection with these procedures, Carrier has established a system of personal identification numbers (PINs), passwords and back-up authentication methods for all customer and accounts, in compliance with the requirements of applicable Commission rules.

- Carrier has established procedures to ensure that customers will be immediately notified of account changes including changes to passwords, back-up means of authentication for lost or forgotten passwords, or address of record.
- Carrier has established procedures to notify law enforcement and customer(s) of unauthorized disclosure of CPNI in accordance with FCC timelines.
- Carrier took the following actions against data brokers in 2009, including proceedings instituted or petitions filed by Carrier at a state commission, in the court system, or at the Federal Communications Commission:

Summary of customer complaints received in 2009 concerning the unauthorized release of CPNI: The Pioneer Telephone Association, Inc. d/b/a Pioneer Communications ("Pioneer") received one customer complaint regarding CPNI during 2009. An anonymous caller stated a specific customer service representative was releasing the caller's unlisted telephone number to individuals not authorized to receive the telephone number. The customer service manager spoke with the named customer service representative. It was determined through the conversation that the customer service representative had given out the unlisted telephone number outside of working hours, based off of her memory of telephone numbers from working with them during working hours. The customer service representative was reminded that she was an employee of Pioneer, and regardless of how she knew/rememberde telephone numbers, from work or from other sources, she would be deemed a Pioneer employee by the general public when giving out a telephone number. The customer service manager reviewed the CPNI rules with the customer service representative. Additionally, the customer service manager reviewed the CPNI rules with the entire customer service department, with a special emphasis on this particular circumstance.
